

FOUR

Years in Cleveland Cabinet.

Sec'y Morton,

Who Was Secretary of Agriculture,

Died Yesterday Afternoon at His Son's Residence in Chicago

Where He Had Gone a Week Ago for Medical Treatment—He Was the Founder of Arbor Day.

Chicago, April 28.—Hon. J. Sterling Morton, former secretary of agriculture, died Sunday afternoon at Lake Forest, at the home of his son, Mark Morton. For several weeks Mr. Morton had been failing. A week ago he was brought from his home at Nebraska City, Neb., to Lake Forest, for medical treatment. The change brought no improvement and he failed gradually until death came. The arrangements for the funeral are as yet incomplete, but it has been determined that services will be held at Lake Forest at 8 o'clock Tuesday, after which the remains will be removed to Mr. Morton's country home at Arbor Lodge, near Nebraska City, where services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The illness of Secretary Morton dates from last November, when he contracted a severe cold while speaking at the stock show in Chicago. The cold ran into an attack of the grippe, and Mr. Morton was in a hospital for some time. When he was able to do so he returned to his home in Nebraska City, where he suffered a relapse. After a partial recovery he left early in March for the City of Mexico, expecting to restore his health. During his stay in the southern country a disease of the bronchial tubes developed, and he returned north.

The interment will be at Nebraska City. A special train bearing the remains of Mr. Morton and members of his family and friends will leave Lake Forest at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for Nebraska City. Death was due to cerebral thrombosis.

Julius Sterling Morton was in Washington for four years as secretary of agriculture in President Cleveland's second administration. He was a man of steadfast convictions, unswerving honesty and undoubted ability. He was the founder of Arbor Day, April 22. The ex-secretary was exactly 70 years old, Sunday being the anniversary of his birth. He was of Scotch-English descent. He was born in Jefferson county, N. Y., but his parents moved to Michigan when he was very young. He was a graduate of Union college, New York.

Must Fight.

Cork, April 28.—Several thousand persons gathered here and with enthusiastic demonstrations welcomed William O'Brien back to Ireland. Mr. O'Brien was recently in Italy. In a speech Mr. O'Brien indicated that his health inclined him to relinquish the representation of Cork city in the house of commons, but he said the castle proclamations made it impossible to desert the leading Nationalist constituency now. They must fight these proclamations, which were intended to drive the people into methods they desired to avoid.

Yacht Captured.

Winnipeg, Man., April 28.—The yacht Grace B, with a pleasure party of 16 aboard, capsized at Lower Fort Garry. All on board managed to reach the shore in safety except Sam G. Harstone, who was drowned. Harstone was winner of many prizes at international curling tournaments.

DEPARTMENT

Of Justice Lacks Evidence Against Beef Trust.

Chicago, April 28.—U. S. Attorney Betha and Judge W. A. Day, representatives of the department of justice, continued today the investigation of the so called beef trust. There are no new indications that the bill of injunction will be filed this week and the probabilities seem remote for such action. More real evidence pointing to the actual existence of such a combination is said to be wanted by both the government officials. Such evidence has been gathered in the east strengthening the case against the packers more than that at hand in Chicago, the seat of the war.

Later.

Chicago, April 28.—It will be ten weeks or longer before the Federal courts act in the beef trust case. By that time the grass cattle will be in the market and relief may be expected from that source. It has been definitely decided not to enforce the criminal clause of the anti-trust law.

In Jail in Mexico.

St. Louis, April 28.—Ex-Congressman Charles Kratz, indicted for bribery in connection with the St. Louis suburban street railway franchise legislation, is in jail at Guadalupe, Mexico. A telegram announcing his arrest and stating that he will be held eight days has been received by Chief of Police Kiely from Jose De Jaunara, chief of police of Guadalupe. Though no extradition treaty covers the case, Circuit Attorney Foulk telegraphed Secretary of State Hay asking that the state department use its influence to have the Mexican government voluntarily deliver Kratz to St. Louis officials.

Vessels Beached.

Ashtabula, O., April 28.—In trying to enter port without a tug the steamer Rappahannock lost her consort, the schooner Pretoria, and the latter went ashore. The tug William D went to the rescue, and in trying to get a line to the vessel struck bottom, knocking a hole in her bow, which necessitated beaching her to prevent sinking.

New York, April 28.—Ex-Captain Putnam B. Strong, and May Yale, of Lady Francis Hope, with whom he eloped from San Francisco months ago, traveling around the world, reached here this morning from Naples. ## Morgan Shipping Agreement.

Hamburg, April 28.—An official statement of the terms of the agreement between the German steamship lines and the syndicate formed by J. P. Morgan is published here. The agreement between the Hamburg-American Packet company and Mr. Morgan, it appears, was concluded last March. Under the agreement, it is claimed, the German lines have preserved their independence in every respect. The syndicate is bound not to send a ship to any German harbor without permission of the German lines, which in turn bind themselves not to increase their present traffic from England to the United States beyond a certain fixed point. Many other clauses in the agreement aim at preventing competition between the syndicate and the German lines.

Double Killing.

Nacogdoches, Tex., April 28.—A double killing occurred at Palestine church, three miles west of this city. At the close of a singing convention, after a heated argument, Elsie Clifton pulled his pistol and shot Jim Clevenger in the chin, the bullet passing through his head, killing him instantly. Then some one shot Clifton through the heart. He died without speaking. Frank Clevenger, a brother of Jim Clevenger, told Sheriff Spradly that he would surrender Monday.

NEW

Union Formed by Engineers.

Much Feeling

Is Engendered Among Those Interested.

Complications of the Brewery Lockout in Cincinnati Takes New Form.

An Injunction Obtained by the Employers Prevents Union From Obeying Orders of Federation of Labor.

Cincinnati, April 28.—Serious trouble was narrowly averted at a meeting called to organize a local union of stationary engineers to take the place of Union 18, whose charter was recently revoked in connection with the protracted trouble between the engineers and the United Brewery Workmen. The executive council of the American Federation of Labor 10 days ago ordered the engineers to shut off steam in breweries employing nonunion men. The brewery proprietors secured an injunction. When the engineers complied with the order of the court, which was in conflict with the order of the federation, their charter was revoked. The old officers and members of union No. 18 appeared at Workmen hall to explain that their charter had not been regularly or legally revoked and to protest against organizing a new local union until the order of the court was disposed of. None of those old members were admitted to the hall, and some of them were roughly handled on the outside. A temporary union was afterward organized.

This new union will send its application at once to the international union for admission, and a meeting will be held here next Sunday to perfect a permanent organization under the new charter that is expected by that time. None of the engineers employed in the breweries in Cincinnati, Newport and Covington joined the new union. They claim that they are still members of Union No. 18, whose charter, they hold, was not revoked in the proper manner, and that they are prevented from complying with the finding of the American Federation of Labor by a restraining order of the court. The fight has intensified the feeling here among those involved in the brewery lockout, which has been in progress for months.

Resort Fireswept.

New York, April 28.—South Beach, a bathing resort on the Staten Island shore, just out of the Narrows, was fireswept, every structure along the beach for a distance of 2,500 feet being destroyed, involving a loss estimated at $150,000. The resort is not yet open for the season and most of the places destroyed were unoccupied. The fire started under the music hall of the casino of Albert Hergenham, who, with his wife and waiters, had come down to prepare the place for the opening of the season. As the music hall had not been opened, it is suspected that the fire was of incendiary origin. The principal structures destroyed in addition to the casino were Walsh's hotel and Wrightman's "aquarium."

Schley in the South.

Memphis, April 28.—Rear Admiral and Mrs. W. S. Schley arrived in Memphis over the Southern railway, and were at once driven to their rooms at the Gayoso hotel. A reception committee met the visitors at Grand Junction and escorted them to Memphis. It was generally understood that it was the wish of Admiral and Mrs. Schley that there should be no demonstration in their honor upon their arrival, but several hundred people were at the Union station to bid them welcome. Admiral Schley will be the guest of the city until Wednesday night, when he will visit several cities in Mississippi.

GUNS

And Men Surrender to Grant.

Native Leader

And All His Forces Lay Down Their Arms.

A Lot of Bolomen Also Quit Fighting and Surrender.

Acting Governor Wright Sends a Report Touching the Chaffee Management of Military Forces on Islands.

Manila, April 28.—General Frederick D. Grant's expedition in the gunboats Baseo and Florida, several steam launches and native lighters, has ascended the Gandara river, in the island of Samar, and has brought the insurgent leader Guevarra and his entire command down the coast. Guevarra's command consists of Rafael Sebastian, Abaki and 38 other officers, 139 men and 161 rifles. Three hundred insurgents with 131 rifles are expected to arrive at Catbalogan, Samar, to surrender formally to the American authorities. Three bolomen, 28 of them armed with rifles, surrendered at Sulat, also in Samar. Guevarra succeeded General Lukban to the command of the insurgent forces in Samar when the latter was captured last February.

At a farewell banquet here to the officers of the Ninth Infantry, Acting Civil Governor Luke E. Wright paid a glowing tribute to the military forces. He said the army, under circumstances of surprising difficulty, had paved the way for the work of the civil authorities, and that only a few cases of friction between the two branches of government had occurred. He said that General Chaffee, whose opinion in that at times have differed from that of the civil authorities, had been a most loyal supporter of civil rule.

Captain L. W. V. Kennon of the Sixth cavalry reports from the island of Negros the surrender of the ladron leader Ruff, with 165 officers and men of his command, together with 12 guns, 140 bolos, seven spears and a few revolvers and daggers. Captain Kennon says this surrender means the opening up of the whole of the southern coast of the island of Negros. After Papa Isio, Ruff was the most important ladron chief on the island. He promises to force Papa Isio and his few remaining followers to surrender. Papa Isio was appointed a colonel in the insurgent army by General Malvar one year ago.

The cholera situation in the islands does not show any improvement. Cholera cases are reported among the American soldiers in the Camarines provinces of southern Luzon and elsewhere, but so far few Americans have been attacked and the disease is mainly confined to natives and Chinamen. In Manila there have been 555 cases and 449 deaths from cholera, while the provinces report 1,599 cases and 1,169 deaths.

Tragedy at a Church.

Hazleton, Pa., April 28.—Michael Cherkow, 38, was murdered about 100 feet from the Greek Catholic church at Hazleton during the progress of the Greek Easter services. George Smith is under arrest, charged with having committed the crime. It is alleged that Smith, upon entering the church, failed to remove his hat, and when requested to do so by Cherkow, one of the trustees, drew a blackjack and assaulted Cherkow. The latter ran out the door, followed by Smith. Cherkow had not gone far when Smith, drawing a revolver, shot him through the back, death being instantaneous. Friends of the dead man overpowered Smith and took him to the station house. The services came to an abrupt termination amid great excitement.

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Week of Debate On the Philippine Government Bill.

Washington, April 28.—There is a miscellaneous program ahead for the house this week. Tuesday the omnibus bill will be passed. Wednesday consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill will be resumed, and after it is disposed of the District of Columbia appropriation bill will be taken up and probably passed before the end of the week. With its passage only two appropriation bills remain to be acted on by the house—the naval and general deficiency bills.

Week of Debate.

Washington, April 28.—The plans of the senate for the week do not extend beyond the continuation of debate on the Philippine government bill and the consideration of minor matters when there is no one prepared to speak on the Philippine bill. Up to the present time the speeches all have been made by minority members of the Philippine committee, but it is stated that other Democratic senators have promised to lift their voices in opposition to the bill, among them being Messrs. Twenty cars left the track and piled up on either side of it. The contents of an oil car took fire and exploded, and four cars on the adjoining Grand Rapids and Indiana track and a blacksmith shop were destroyed. The loss on the cars and the shops is $45,000. Just before the evening services Rev. Sims was again called to his residence where he celebrated the nuptials of Miss Gertrude Pore and Everett Grubb, both residing in this vicinity. The well wishes of many friends attend the happy quartette upon their journey through life.
Pastor Sims' Bible Class.
The great interest in Pastor Sims' explanatory sermons on the so-called unexplainable book of Revelations, has culminated in a request to Mr. Sims, to meet a Bible class for the further private study of the book. The request came from teachers and thinking persons and will probably be complied with. The time and place of meeting will be announced later. The 12th chapter is the next topic.

Smith Returned.
H. W. Smith, the south Lima street salesman, who created a mild sensation by his sudden departure from south Lima, under quite peculiar circumstances several weeks ago, arrived in this locality last night, and announces he will continue his residence here. He declares a wrong construction has been placed upon his conduct. Without hesitancy he admits he and Mrs. Smith did not abide in complete felicity. He alleges she misrepresented matters regarding his not providing for her upon his departure, stating he gave her over five hundred dollars. Smith is embittered against his wife whom he represents has left town after collecting a large amount of accounts which he insists belonged rightfully to him. He is satisfied to allow everything connected with the affair to pass unchallenged. This closes an incident in which both claim to have been wronged.

To Reorganize.
In the near future members of the south Lima Winchester Gun club will meet to reorganize. The association will be improved in several respects. It is proposed to remove the club house and traps to a location along the Western Ohio railroad. An effort will be made to bring the organization up to the highest possible standard of perfection. It is quite possible some very important and interesting events will be arranged for this summer. Some of the best talent will be induced to attend the several events.

Merchants of This Town Want A New Bridge Over Auglaize River, But Opposition To the Proposition Appears to Exist Among the Farmers.

Judge Walters Has Received Letters Patent on Another Article—A Prominent Moulton Township Farmer Dead.

Wapakoneta, O., April 28.—The merchants of this city want a new bridge across Auglaize river and two routes have been mentioned, both of which, although feasible, will take a great deal of money. The matter was presented to the council some time ago and a committee appointed to confer with the commissioners of the county and get them to assume a share of the cost. While the farmers north of town would be willing to use a new bridge if one were erected, in place of using the one occupied by the traction company, they decidedly object to paying for it. One citizen of the town who wants a new bridge has been trying to get farmers to sign a petition for it and has been turned down by a good many, who say it is not necessary for them to use a bridge at all, but that they can go elsewhere. So it looks very much as if the commissioners would not have the tax payers with them in helping to pay for a new bridge.

JOHN ROBINSON'S SHOW
A Gorgeous, Sumptuous, and Impressive Augmentation.

To speak of the merits of John Robinson's Ten Big Shows Combined is merely "love's labor lost" with the people of this nation. There is not an amusement lover on the continent that is not fully cognizant of the fact that it is now and has ever been the best among the best. Everybody does not know however, that during the last winter's vacation the show has received augmentation so vast and so important as to dwarf by comparison even its own great exhibitional excellence. We allude to the grand, gorgeous and sublime biblical spectacle of "Solomon, His Temple and the Queen of Sheba," in which innumerable people are active participants, and which is complete in scenographic effect, typical reproduction of biblical personages and events, profuse in pagantic and processional features, lavish in entrancing ballets and terpsichorean diversions, and rich in drappings and appointments, requiring for its production, the largest stage ever constructed, and conspicuously portraying sacred events, scenes and incidents such as the Judgment of Solomon, Arrival of the Queen of Sheba, the City of David, The Palace and Temple, the Walls and Towers of Jerusalem, Solomon's 700 wives, the Sacred Ark of the Covenant, the Great Ivory Throne, Procession of War Chariots, Slaves bearing incense, lovely Cresset Dancing Girls, martial and courtly parades exciting chariot races. This eminently moral, historical and mind elevating spectacle will commend itself to every lover of the sacred and beautiful.
The Robinson show with its sublime spectacular accession is to exhibit in Lima, May 9.

A Novelty in Balloons.
A Parisian aeronaut is building a balloon which is to carry both a refrigerator and a heating apparatus. By pressing a lever of the refrigerator he will decrease the temperature of the gas, condensing it and causing the balloon to descend. By heating the hydrogen gas it expands, and the balloon rises.

High Pressure Days.
Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the praiseworthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for the purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high-pressure days.

STORIES OF CORRIGAN Woman's Danger Periods.
The Archbishop's Characteristics Interestingly Depicted.
PLEASEING INSTANOE OF HIS TACT

How the Famous Catholic Prelate Placed a Guest of Different Faith at His Ease—Amusing Incident on a Railway Train Bound Out From Montreal.
Here are some interesting anecdotes of Archbishop Corrigan of New York: The famous prelate never more fully displayed the charming tact which, aside from his other attainments, made him so wide a popularity than at a reception of the Catholic club in New York city.
The guests had pressed forward in a long line to be introduced and kiss the archiepiscopal ring, but a wife presented herself alone, says the New York World. Smiling in an embarrassed way, she explained that her husband, she thought, stood in awe of his grace. But his grace made no such mistake. Wife and husband were of different faith. He grasped the situation in a moment, and a humorous light came into his eyes.
Whispering to the priest at his side, he expressed his desire to have the man presented. There was no alternative. The recalcitrant approached. The archbishop extended both hands, firmly caught the right hand of his unwilling guest and, holding it to his breast, made it impossible for him to kneel during their short conversation.

Sometimes the occasion arose where the archbishop was compelled, in a more or less public way, to reveal some of his literary accomplishments. Such took place some time ago when he was in Europe, says Holland in the Philadelphia Press.
It is an anecdote which his then secretary, McDonnell, now bishop of Brooklyn, who was present at the time of the incident, tells with much amusement. The archbishop had entered a compartment of a railway train bound out from Munich. In the compartment were two Italian officers and a third gentleman whose nationality was not apparent at first. For some time the Italians chatted with the archbishop in their native tongue, apparently not realizing that Italian was not also the native tongue of the archbishop.
Something occurred which led the other gentlemen to speak, he addressing the archbishop in French, and he received a reply in that language from the archbishop. Something went wrong about the window, and this gentleman then spoke in English about it, addressing his remark to the archbishop, who replied in English.

The conversation was continued between them in English, and the stranger at last said that he understood the American archbishop Corrigan had been in Munich, adding that he would have been greatly delighted had he been able to meet him, having taken great interest in the career of Archbishop Corrigan.
The countenance of the archbishop was imperturbable. Then the stranger, doubtless perceiving from his dress that the archbishop was a clergyman of the Catholic church, asked him if he knew whether Archbishop Corrigan had left Munich, and to this question the archbishop replied very quietly, "Yes; I believe he has gone." The stranger then said that he was an American and, asking the archbishop his nationality, was told in reply, "I am an American too."

Soon after that the stranger, being about to leave the train, asked the archbishop if he would not exchange cards with him. His card revealed that he was a captain in the United States army. He did not look at the archbishop's card until as the train was just starting, but he must have discovered a moment later that his wish had been gratified and that he had not only seen the American archbishop, but had been in conversation with him.

Archbishop Michael Augustine Corrigan was born in Newark, N. J., on Aug. 14, 1840. His parents came to the United States from Leinster, Ireland, settling in Newark. The father prospered and succeeded in his aim to give his children the best education that could be had. After completing the courses in the lower schools and then the higher ones the young man was sent to St. Mary's college, in Emmitsburg, Md., where his career as a student is still held up to the present classes as an example of what a man can accomplish if he sets his mind on his studies.
Archbishop Corrigan succeeded to the see of New York in October, 1885, when Cardinal McCloskey died.

Pingpong Favors.
Souvenirs for pingpong parties, according to the New York Commercial Advertiser, are to be had at the confectioners' shops already, and the makers of cotton favors are racking their brains for ideas that will suggest the game that has almost eclipsed bridge and bids fair to cast even golf into the shade. The pingpong candy boxes are in the form of pingpong bats or rackets (call them bats if you would be English, you know) and have a small rubber ball fastened to the top. The handle is tied with ribbon, and the box holds about half a pound of sweets.

It now seems altogether probable that the St. Louis Louisiana purchase exposition will be postponed from 1903 to 1904. There is a state of unreadiness, both in this country and upon the part of foreign exhibitors, who want an extension of time. The year 1904 is in reality the one hundredth anniversary of the actual incorporation of the territory acquired from France into the body of our possessions. The treaty was negotiated in 1803, but delivery was made in the succeeding year.

The lines of British and American ships first brought under the Morgan control comprised 118 steamers, with total of 881,562 tons. To the North German Lloyd line and the Hamburg-American company, which have been drawn into the syndicate, belong 256 steamships of 1,224,178 tons. It is this German connection with a tonnage nearly two-thirds greater than the rest that gives a formidable character to this combination to monopolize transportation by land and sea.

The administration is just now engaged in the rather detestable business of feeling the pulse of the country about the proposed removal in disgrace of General Miles from the command of the army. To this end, every day press dispatches go out from Washington can make up their minds that it is the expedient thing to do. Vague charges are hinted at, but it is certain General Miles will be allowed no chance to defend himself until he finds he is shorter by a head. The hostility Roosevelt and his followers have manifested to Dewey, Schley and Miles has been one of the strange developments of our recent history. Farston seems to be the only one in the charmed circle of presidential favor, and as to General McArthur his services were only those of a well-trained detective.

TAKE OFF THE MEAT TAXES!

The beef combine claims that the abnormally high price of meat, which is now prohibitory to the poor, is due to a scarcity of cattle.

This claim is refuted by the statistics showing that the receipts of live stock at Chicago last week exceeded those of the previous week by 6000, and that the increase this year to date over 1901 is 32,571 cattle, 869,297 hogs, 42, 65 sheep.

But conceding that there is a scarcity, what is the obvious and natural remedy? Is it not to increase the supply?

Canada could supply our eastern cities with many cattle and an abundance of sheep. We could, at a pinch, buy refrigerated meat from Argentina or Australia, as England does. But the tariff bars the way. The Dingley duty on beef cattle is 27 1/2 per cent. That is, a steer worth $100 on this side the border would cost $127.50 if brought over from Canada!

The duty on sheep is $1.50 a head; on fresh beef, veal, mutton and pork 2 cents a pound.

This tax upon food is not needed for revenue, for the treasury is still in receipt of a large surplus. It is not needed for protection to our cattle-growers, for we are large exporters of beef, and the trust usually sells it cheaper in England than here. It is a tariff for monopoly only, like the duty on sugar.

COLUMBUS GROVE.

District Meeting of Tribe of Ben Hur Will be Held

Here This Week, the First Session Commencing at 9 O'clock on Wednesday Morning.

COLUMBUS GROVE, O., April 28.—

The third district meeting of the Tribe of Ben Hur will be held in this city on next Wednesday, May 7. There will be three sessions:—morning, afternoon and evening. Congress will convene promptly at nine o'clock, after which the welcome address will be given by the local court. Dr. H. V. Beardsley, of Findlay, one of the most prominent Ben Hurs in the district, will respond to the welcome address. The appointment of committees and miscellaneous business follows, after which an address with recommendation will be given. Hon. D. W. Girard, supreme chief of the Ben Hur organization, of Crawfordsville, Ind., delivers the principal address of the morning, taking for his subject, "A Better Growth." Then follows the election of officers, and the selection of the next meeting place, and the forenoon session is at an end. The afternoon session is taken up by papers read by members of the courts from Bowling Green, North Baltimore, McCoub, and West Independence. A. M. Ketcham, of Ben Hur court, No. 7, at Findlay, has a paper, as has also H. A. Brown, of Washington court, No. 34, at Toledo. The latter will speak from the subject, "Primary Objects of Fraternal Societies." H. C. Post, of Toledo, and representing Toledo court, will talk upon "A Few Remarks." Mrs. J. D. Moffitt, of Findlay, will recite, and Miss Gertrude Miller, of Bluffton court, Bluffton, Ohio, will read a paper, "Is the Court True to Its Namesake?" The newly elected officers will be installed at the close of the afternoon session, by Hon. Mr. Girard. The evening session is given over largely to a literary program. Dr. Beardsley, of Findlay, and Hon. Mr. Girard, of Crawfordsville, will deliver addresses. Hon. J. T. DeFord, of Ottawa, will speak from the subject, "Should the Fraternals be Taxed?" The orchestra will furnish music for the evening session. The meetings will be held in the room of Putnam court, on High street, and about 200 visiting delegates are expected to come on to attend the meeting. The presence of Hon. Mr. Girard and Dr. Beardsley, noted well-known Ben Hurs, is an inspiration in itself, and the meeting is expected to eclipse anything in the line of fraternal meetings held here for years. The district extends from the state line on the north and west, as far east as Hancock county, and on the south Van Wert county is included in the boundary line. About 25 courts are included in this district. Rev. E. C. Klink, pastor of the east Sycamore street Christian church, is the district chief, and will preside at the meeting. The local lodge has completed every detail of the arrangements, and visitors will be extended a royal welcome.

At the First Presbyterian church yesterday, the pastor, Rev. Elias D. Conger, spoke from the subject of "Boomerangs." The sermon contained the usual good thoughts which the minister is able to so forcibly expel. In the evening a song service, to introduce the new books, was held.

Frank Ward, of Bluffton, spent Saturday with his parents. He and his brother Joseph went to Indianapolis, Sunday, as guests of their brother, Bert Ward, and wife.

The village council meets this evening to transact matters of importance. L. C. Powell, secretary and treasurer of the Fishack Plaster Co., of Toledo and Fort Wayne, was in the city last Saturday, conferring with the First Presbyterian church committee concerning the plaster to be used in the new structure. The work of plastering this fine new edifice was commenced this morning. J. G. Point and H. E. Chamberlain, of Delphos, are the contractors.

C. H. Baldwin, of Toledo, an electrician of note, is wiring the new Presbyterian church for electric lights. The edifice will be supplied with an abundance of the incandescent bulbs, and the lights will be so arranged as to produce a most striking and beautiful effect.

The Detroit Southern railroad has placed danger signals at the crossings of the road with the village streets.

THE IDLER.

"If you want to down the beef trust," said a man who is engaged in the fruit trade, "don't eat meat. Eat bananas instead. I'm not joking; I'm serious. The banana as a staple article of food has been too long neglected by the people of our zone. It may surprise you to know that the banana is the king-pin of the vegetable world, so far as nutrition is concerned. It is 25 times as nutritious as wheat of the same weight, has 45 times the nutriment of potatoes and 30 times that of rice, the three staple vegetable products of the world. These figures are the result of scientific investigation. It is time that we turned our attention to the banana. We might profitably take a few lessons in preparing the fruit for the table from our southern neighbors."

Frank Edson, of Van Wert, was in town last week in the interest of the Lima-Fort Wayne electric road. This company wishes to secure a right-of-way along the Pennsylvania road. To secure this it will be necessary to move Nieser's elevator south fifteen feet, which the company agrees to do at their expense. Five buildings in Dixon will be moved the same distance to the south.—Convoy Crescent.

The following sentence, said to be taken verbatim from a law recently passed by the Nebraska legislature, has a very strange and alarming sound. Perhaps a proposition has dropped out of the last phrase: "It shall be unlawful for any person to fire off or discharge any pistol, revolver, shot gun, rifle, or any firearms whatsoever, on any public road or highway in any county of the state of Nebraska, or within sixty yards of such public roads or highway, except to destroy some wild, ferocious and dangerous beast or an officer in the discharge of his duty."

REV. DEERE

Speaks to a Large Audience on Subject of "Nebo."

At the First Baptist church last evening the pastor, Rev. Deere, gave the fourth in the series of sermons pertaining to the "Mountains of Scripture" on the subject entitled "Nebo, or Viewing the Promised Land." The pastor's description of the closing excellent one, replete with lucid illustrations of how the christian of today may not only view the promised land as did the great law-giver of old, but go in and possess it was his privilege. This has been the most interesting and profitable series of sermons under the present pastorate, and interest of a deep spiritual nature and increasing attendance being eminently characteristic of these services.

His Wife a Farewell Note, But a Doubt

Exists That Husband Killed Himself.

Sequel to a Wedding Which Occurred Here Friday, April 18th.

Raymond B. Westlake, who Was Married to Vinnie E. Harrod, Believed to Have Deserted His Wife.

A dispatch from Denver, Col., which will be of interest to those who were acquainted with Raymond B. Westlake, a young man who, until recently was employed by the L. E. & W., contains the following startling information: Denver, Col., April 27.—Raymond B. Westlake, who came to Denver on his wedding trip, left his bride of nine days at the Columbia Hotel here and disappeared yesterday. He left the following note: "I am going to kill myself. I have heart trouble and can live only a few days. Do not search for my body, for I have found a place where it will never be discovered."

His brother, L. E. Westlake, of Telluride, Colo., believes that Raymond has deserted his wife, and last night left with Mrs. Westlake, whom he will place in charge of relatives who live at No. 688 south West street, Lima, Ohio, where she was married April 8. The bride thinks that her husband has killed himself and refuses to accept the theory of desertion. She is quite ill as a result of the shock.

The Westlakes came to Denver a week ago last Tuesday and Raymond at once secured work as a stenographer. One of his fellow-clerk quotes him as saying: "I've been around the world a few times, but I've missed a few cities that I'm going to see soon."

The acquaintances of Westlake in Lima are inclined to the theory of desertion, and when the facts connected with his marriage to Vinnie E. Harrod on the date mentioned are considered, it seems more likely that he has abandoned her and endeavored to cover up his desertion by the false announcement of intended suicide.

An examination of the marriage license docket shows that a license was issued to Westlake on the 18th of April and according to the questions he was compelled to answer it showed him to be 23 years of age. He is a son of J. W. Westlake and was born at Three Rivers, Michigan. His occupation as given is a stenographer. His bride is Vinnie E. Harrod, aged 18, whose birth place was at Pierre, South Dakota, but the family now lives on south West street.

Westlake took a business course in the college here and up to the time of his marriage worked at the Lake Erie offices. He had passed a civil service examination and although a young man had seen something of the world, having been in the Philippines and other foreign countries.

CHAINS

Overbalanced Him and He Fell From the Detroit Southern Railroad Trestle.

Andrew Swen, An Ohio Oil Co., Employee, Victim of an Accident This Morning—Taken to City Hospital.

Andrew Swen, of Spencerville, an employee of the Ohio Oil Co., was severely injured about 9 o'clock this morning by falling from the Detroit Southern railroad trestle, which spans Hog creek at a point east of McCullough's lake. He was on his way to one of the Ohio Oil Co. power houses and was walking across the trestle when a train approached. He stepped onto the timbers at one side of the track to get out of the way of the train and some heavy chains he was carrying over his shoulders caused him to lose his balance. Seeing that a fall was inevitable he jumped and landed on his feet on the ground twenty feet below. His back was severely injured by the shock and he was removed to the city hospital in Jones & Miller ambulance to be treated and marks the beginning of a complete revolution in the relations of the workman toward public affairs.

Mayor Sullivan, the new mayor of Hartford, is not a dreamer, but he declares Connecticut has found the secret of success in politics for the workman. He says that the American workmen have only to take lessons from Connecticut to dominate the municipal politics of the country. He sees no doubt that the workmen will elect the governor of the state this fall.

A New York World correspondent spent three hours with this interesting man the other day, and in the course of their conversation Mayor Sullivan said:

"I have only this fixed determination in mind, to give the city an honest, efficient administration, guided by the common sense. Common sense is what it is to be. The league has a platform which will be followed. It mentions a few specific matters, but it may earn summed up in the pledge to give the city an honest and economical administration."

"I want to bring labor and capital nearer together. That shall be the object of my administration. A better standing is all that is needed. Half the problem would be solved if we could only bring them to understand each other. Then would come sympathy, and 'Abraham Lincoln is my model citizen,' said the mayor. 'Right here, Mr. Hartford in a speech he made during the great shoe strike at Lynn in 1817 he said: 'I thank God for labor and for the men who are men of the day. I thank God that there are men who know when to stop.' I wonder why they have left that out of Lincoln's speeches."

"Workingmen have been impatient at politics heretofore. On election day they have seen workingmen hard at work for the polls. Working for what? Working for the ticket that somebody else will out. It occurred to me that if workingmen could do such effective work as others they could do it for themselves. They have the power. The problem is to discover how it may be used. The intelligent workingmen of Connecticut have found the way."

"The only real clear cut victory of so that the straight issues was here. At Hartford the issue was a corrupt administration. As a result of the election of

Curtis Retaliates Against the City Transfer Company by Having Eight of Its Employees Arrested.

Saturday afternoon manager Chapell, of the City Transfer Co., filed affidavits in mayor's court, charging Guy Curtis and four of his cabmen—Eli Bailey, Jasper Burden, Charles Brown and Walter Keuthan—with having violated the city ordinance which prohibits the soliciting of passengers on the platforms at the railway stations. The five men were notified to appear before the mayor and this morning pleas of guilty were entered by them to the charges. The mayor imposed a fine of $5 and costs each.

Curtis, while admitting that he and his men have violated the provisions of the ordinance, claims that the employees of the City Transfer Co. have also been guilty of the same offense and this morning he signed affidavits containing charges against eight of the Transfer Co.'s men. The latter have been notified to appear before Mayor Rogers tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. It is probable that the Transfer Co. cases will be taken into common pleas court.

For Stealing Corn. Harry Craig, colored, was arrested by officer Frank Gardner, Saturday evening, and was arraigned in mayor's court this morning charged with stealing two bushels of corn from Sam Shultz's barn. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to ten days imprisonment.

Saturday night about 7 o'clock some one stole a half barrel of beer from one of the Lima Brewing Co.'s wagons while it was standing in the alley near ideal. said the mayor. "Right here, Mr. Hartford in a speech he made during the great shoe strike at Lynn in 1817 he said: 'I thank God for labor and for the men who are men of the day. ## KINDERGARTEN FARMS.

Novel Institution for the Children of Travelers.

A kindergarten farm, according to the New York Press, is the newest thing for persons who want to be free to follow their inclination for travel unhindered and to be assured that their children will enjoy proper care in their absence. A farm of this kind which is successful has about seven children. That number may be increased to twelve, but no more, as the object is to keep it small and family like. The farm has a roomy house and twelve acres of land, and there are all kinds of pets on it, including a faithful shepherd dog, cats, chickens, a "safe" pony and a goat. There is a lake, with a bench, on which the children may paddle to their hearts' content in the summer time.

The children are so happy on "the farm" that they don't want to leave it when their families come for them, and some parents who have to live in city apartments leave their children on the farm the greater part of the year in order that they may enjoy the free life that normal children should have.

Brave General Delaney.

Out of the gloom he bravely rides, Delaney, The clank of his armor was heard, Delaney, And man and beast in wild stampede, The soldier dived by the maddened steed, Like rushing water so swift recede, Delaney, They bend above the flying mass, Delaney, They strike, they wheel, they strike again! Delaney, Then through the field so swiftly won, By fallen man and steed and gun, They ride away, their work is done, Delaney.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HANDICAPPED BY PRAISE.

New Pension Commissioner's Humorous Letter to an Editor.

Eugene F. Ware, whom the president has decided to appoint pension commissioner, recently addressed the following note to a Topeka paper, says the Philadelphia Press:

"Will you kindly omit in your paper all further allusions to me? I am being overpraised. In a little while, by the law of compensation, I will be overblasted. Glorification notices will nauseate my friends and provoke my enemies. If I should be confirmed and then accept and should enter upon my duties as commissioner of pensions, I will be handicapped by these contending emotions. And when at last my exterior shall, decorate the fence, as it certainly must in time, my friends will have no incentive to weep and my enemies will have no restraint upon their levity. Therefore please don't give them any more."

NOW IS THE TIME

Seasons change. We can't change them. We can't prevent the coming of cold and damp airs.

But we can prevent the sore throats, the coughs, colds and lung troubles by taking Scott's Emulsion. Nothing does more to make the tender throat tough. Nothing gives such strength to weak lungs.

Don't take risks—when it's easy to be safe. Now is the season for taking Scott's Emulsion in season.

Installing Columbia's New Head

THE installation of Nicholas Murray Butler as president of Columbia University is one of the most important events that have occurred in the college world in a long time. The elaborate preparations made by the college authorities to celebrate the occasion resulted in a programme covering three days.

The programme for the first day provided for a dinner given by Professor Butler's classmates, to be followed by

The library is approached from the south by a court 375 feet in width and 200 feet deep. It was erected at a cost of $1,250,000. It is built in the form of a Greek cross, and the style is pure classic. The extreme width of the building is 192 feet, and the height to the summit of the dome is 135 feet. The base is built of granite, and the building above this is of Indiana limestone.

Columbia is the fourth among American colleges in age. Only Harvard, William and Mary and Yale are older. The erection of the buildings on the new site began in 1895. The site alone cost $2,000,000. In 1900-01 the college was reorganized on the basis of a university and its various parts were brought into a harmonious whole. Under President Seth Low, who took the presidency in 1888, the greatest advances in the history of the college have been made, and its usefulness and fame have since steadily widened.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, who succeeds Seth Low as president of Columbia, is about forty years of age. He is one of the foremost educators, both theoretical and practical, in the United States and already has had the opportunity of declining no less than fourteen offers to become president of institutions of learning.

Dr. Butler was graduated in 1882 from Columbia college, receiving a degree of Ph. D. in 1881. He also studied at Berlin and Paris, and in 1888 received the degree of LL. D. from Syracuse University. His first appointment at Columbia was in 1885, as assistant in philosophy, and he has occupied the chair of philosophy and education in the university since 1890.

He was the first president of New York College for the Training of Teachers, a new Teachers' college, which was held from 1887 to 1891. He served as president of the New Jersey board of education from 1888 to 1900 and as special commissioner from New Jersey to the Paris exhibition in 1900.

As a member of the New Jersey State Board of Education, he has been instrumental in the reorganization and improvement of the school system, introducing manual training, establishing a system of approved high schools and thereby stimulating the schools to raise their standards, classifying teachers' certificates in such a manner as to encourage teachers to attain higher qualifications, eliminating politics from the office of the superintendent and requiring the appointment of professional men as county superintendents. The period of Dr. Butler's membership in the board was the most progressive in the history of the state.

He was president of the National Education association in 1895 and is now a life director and one of the most active members of that organization. He is also a trustee of the Washington Memorial institution.

Dr. Butler is well known throughout the country as the editor of The Educational Review and of The Great Educator Series and of The Teachers' Professional Library and by numerous addresses and papers on educational subjects. He was selected by the bureau of education in Washington as editor of the monographs on education in the United States submitted as part of the educational exhibit at the Paris exhibition in 1900, and he received special recognition in the form of a gold medal.

At the present time Dr. Butler is the president of the Society for the Scientific Study of Education, the membership in which is limited to professors of education in colleges and universities, normal school teachers and heads of state and city school systems, and he is also president of the Association of American Universities, composed of Harvard, Columbia, Clark, Catholic, Yale, Johns Hopkins, Cornell, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Chicago, Michigan, Wisconsin, California and Stanford.

Professor Butler, besides being a close friend of former President Low, now mayor of Greater New York, enjoys the confidence and friendship of President Roosevelt.

PRISONERS ARRIVE

And Frank Polser, a Fugitive for Eight Years, in Now in Jail.

Kept a Cool Head When Arrested and at First Denied His Identity But Acknowledged All Later.

Sheriff Barr and Deputy Sheriff Summers arrived home from Jacksonville, Florida at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, having accomplished their quest, and landed Frank Polser in the county jail. The return trip was without incident, scarcely a reference being made to the crime committed in this city eight years ago and Polser is rather more relieved than otherwise to know that his long term of hiding and dodging possible arrest is at an end. He is ready now to face the stern precepts of the law, but will enter the contest on a plea of not guilty to the charge of murder in the first degree.

MENTAL STRAIN

Has Had the Effect of Breaking the Prisoner Down.

Frank Polser plainly shows the effects of a hunted man. During the eight years in which he drifted about the country, ever in fear of detection, time has placed its stamp upon him, and when finally run to earth he carried the marks of a man whom both fear and remorse had broken down. His hair is sprinkled with gray and are has reddened its footsteps in his wake. And yet today, although behind the prison bars he has so long eluded, he casts off the one great dread that has ever been with him and realizes that he can at least lay aside the fear of recognition by his fellow man.

Since his arrest he has made but one statement concerning the crime which sent Patrick Lyons to his grave. He said to the sheriff that he did not care to talk about it, as it would do no body any good and would only help to prejudice public opinion one way or the other. All he wanted was a fair and impartial trial, and that the case was now up to the lawyers, the court and the jury.

TOOK IT COOL

When Arrested, and at First Denied His Identity.

Having been guided to Polser's hiding place, Deputy Sheriff Summers went to Jacksonville and remained there for two days before Polser was located. When arrested, he first displayed considerable surprise, but as though he had counted on the day to come, there was scarcely any agitation and he easily declared that he was not the man. But fully convinced that he would be brought back to Lima and identified beyond a doubt, he later acknowledged that the name of Polser was assumed and that Frank Polser had finally been captured. He had no hesitancy in giving an account of his wanderings since the night of the murder and although he remained at one place for a period of six years, the spirit of restlessness manifested itself in his case as in all others of a like nature.

He went from Lima to Sandusky and from there to Cleveland, but after a short stay made directly for New York. Sometime later he went to Camden, N. J., and there joined a circus remaining with the troupe during one season. When winter came

IN SOCIETY.

Pleasant Event Given by Mrs. McCoy.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Wm. McCoy, of north McDonald street, gave a very pretty little card party, honoring Mrs. J. L. Patten, of Sewickley, Pa. Four tables were filled with card devotees, who enjoyed a merry game, the victorious player being Mrs. W. B. Richle and the one more than consoled was Mrs. Clement Baxter, whose prize was a cluster of fragrant roses. After the game, a four course tea was deftly served.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Mitchell have returned from a southern trip, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Hesse, of Atlanta, Ga., who will visit them for a week.

Tomorrow, Mrs. Clement C. Baxter, of west Market street, will entertain a few friends at luncheon, the honor guest being Mrs. J. L. Patten, of Sewickley, Pa.

he started south, was at Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Charleston, S. C., and finally settled at Newport News where he followed his trade as a machinist for six years. He had been at Jacksonville but four months, and at the time of his arrest was working on a sand boat.

HIS MOTHER

Was the First Person Polser Asked About.

When the prisoner acknowledged his identity to Mr. Summers he had a thousand questions to ask concerning Lima and the people in whom he was interested, but the first question he asked was whether his mother was still living. Being satisfied that she was, he replied that he had neither received a letter from or written a letter to anyone at his old home since he left, and that except for an occasional dispatch from Lima in the daily papers he was ignorant of all that had transpired from the day he became a fugitive.

His mother visited the jail this morning and the meeting was a most pathetic one. Arrangements were at once made to provide him with fresh clothing and it was also decided to engage legal counsel to conduct the defense. Who will be engaged has not yet been given out, but Polser will have the best legal talent that the county affords.

Arrangements have been made to have the accused arraigned in open court some time tomorrow, and the trial of the case will not be long postponed.

KNEW HIS NAME

But the Whereabouts of Polser Was Not Certain.

Deputy Sheriff Summers had not definitely located Polser when he left Lima, but he had learned the fugitive's alias and this served to bring about his arrest. Mr. Summers went first to a point in Pennsylvania and then to Newport News and finally to Jacksonville. The pay-rolls of the machinists in the city were examined by the first real clue to Polser's presence was his signature on the police docket. Twice during the search, his man the deputy sheriff discovered that Polser had been arrested for drunkenness due to his appetite for drink. Two days later, accompanied by an officer who had been appointed to assist in the search, Mr. Summers saw Polser enter the saloon in which they had taken their watch, and arrest followed.

As previously stated the prisoner put on a cool front, and denied that he had ever been in Ohio or that he was ever married. The arrest occurred Saturday evening and while the deputy sheriff was satisfied from his recollection of Polser, that he had the right man, it was a relief to have him identified by the following morning.

The sheriff and deputy speak very highly of southern hospitality and they were shown every courtesy and offered every assistance in the discharge of their duty.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, of west Market street, gave a delightful progressive euchre, complimenting Mrs. J. L. Patten, of Sewickley, Pa. Seven tables were filled with players, the highest scores being held by Mr. J. W. Griffin and Mrs. J. Van Dyke. The former securing a trophy, a curious Japanese jar and the latter, a unique Venetian vase. While consolation gifts of a wroug iron cigar holder and a bouquet of roses were secured by Mr. Wm. McKenzie and Mrs. F. M. Allen.

Mrs. Frank Fred, of Fargo, Dakota, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchins, of corner Main and North streets, Mercantile street.

Mrs. Esther Goodrich, who has been spending the winter with her neices, Misses Mackenzie, of south College street, returned to her home Kenoska, Wisconsin, Saturday, accompanied by her nephew, Mr. E. Mackenzie, who will return home tomorrow.

Mr. Charles Fry, formerly of city, but now of Chicago, was guest of Mr. Gibson Dilline, over day.

LECTURE

On Passion Play Drew a Large Audience.

The big auditorium of the Congregational church was packed to the doors last night and many remained standing throughout the interesting lecture delivered by Rev. Swanson on the Passion Play. The series of pictures displayed were the finest of the kind yet exhibited and are true to the scenes described. The grouping of the characters, the arrangement of scenes and action and the costumes were vividly brought out in rich colors, while the history of the world-renowned village of Oberammergau and its people added interest and life to the pictorial study of the crucifixion. In all probability the lecture will be given again as the audience of last night has everywhere expressed its pleasure and the profit derived from the beautiful lesson.

GUS KALB

Saturday evening an important real estate deal was closed by which the new Linneman block, a two story brick structure, situated on the west side of Main street, between Spring and Elm streets, was sold by J. Dr. J. B. Mayer, president of the Lima Electric Railway and Light Company, arrived in the city Sunday morning and at once took hold of the strike question. Mr. Mayer was ill when here last and was away on a vacation, seeking health at the time he heard that the cars were not running in Lima. He expressed his regret that there had been any misunderstanding both as to the result in discomfort to the public and employees of the company. He at once proceeded upon lines which have been characteristic of him ever since he has been connected with the property, as all know when he came here he found the property very much run down and his company has expended enormous sums of money in placing it in its present physical condition, which is as good, if not better, than any city of its size in the country.

After a conference with the employees, an understanding was arrived at which was perfectly satisfactory to both parties. As has always been the policy of the company, Mr. Mayer prefers to employ Lima labor, notwithstanding the offers that were made from all portions of the state to furnish labor to move the cars, their requests were not considered, as Mr. Mayer prefers his Lima property to be operated in so far as possible by people who have their homes here in the city.

TOOK

The First Train for This City

When He Heard

That There was a Strike on the Road

And That Cars Were Not Running With the Usual Regularity.

Mr. Joseph B. Mayer, President of the Lima Electric Railway and Light Company is interviewed.

Mr. J. B. Mayer, president of the Lima Electric Railway & Light Company, arrived in the city Sunday morning and at once took hold of the strike question. Mr. Mayer was ill when here last and was away on a vacation, seeking health at the time he heard that the cars were not running in Lima. He expressed his regret that there had been any misunderstanding both as to the result in discomfort to the public and employees of the company. He at once proceeded upon lines which have been characteristic of him ever since he has been connected with the property, as all know when he came here he found the property very much run down and his company has expended enormous sums of money in placing it in its present physical condition, which is as good, if not better, than any city of its size in the country.

After a conference with the employees, an understanding was arrived at which was perfectly satisfactory to both parties. As has always been the policy of the company, Mr. Mayer prefers to employ Lima labor, notwithstanding the offers that were made from all portions of the state to furnish labor to move the cars, their requests were not considered, as Mr. Mayer prefers his Lima property to be operated in so far as possible by people who have their homes here in the city.

When his people first took possession of the property, he, without solicitation increased the wages of the employees very materially. The question of wages must always bear relation to the income of the property and Lima is situated with the square actually in the center of the city. It is not much of a task to walk to any part of the city, the result is that the receipts in Lima do not compare with the receipts of any other city of similar size, owing to the fact of its being a square built city and no part is distant from the business portion. Be Mr. Mayer expresses his deep regret for any account of any inconvenience that may have been occasioned to the public and feels that they can have the assurance that the employees will endeavor to give them even better service in the future than in the past.

Mr. Mayer was also interrogated as to the proposition of the establishment of the heating plant and said that the company, just returned from several cities and examined several systems and the contract has been given to the American District Heating Company who will start work inside of 30 days after the plant will be installed this fall through the business portion of the city. Investigation discloses that installing a plant of this character involves an enormous amount of expense and that the best results both to the company and the public can only be obtained by using the very best material and construction throughout, regardless of what the expense may be.

All the engines, boilers and new machinery has been ordered with the best companies in the United States. Specifications for a fire proof building will be finished within a few days and building will be started thereafter. When this plant is completed, it will in its construction as well as machinery, appliances and connections, be a plant second to none, both for heating and lighting and furnishing electric power.
